

Costa Rica's 5-Star Luxury Vacation Rental; Villa de la Luna

Written March, 9, 2016

Costa Rica Travel – Villa de la Luna offers an all-inclusive 5- bedroom, 5-bathroom beachfront villa rental, perfect for family vacations, weddings, anniversaries, birthday parties, and more. Villa de la Luna, located in the province Guanacaste in El Ocotal, Costa Rica, offers guests all-inclusive amenities such as three meals per day provided by a personal executive chef, premium open bar with a talented mixologist, and 24-hour concierge and housekeeping. The Villa comfortably sleeps up to 14 adults.

Villa de la Luna, built by William Bell, a Commercial Contractor, was built in 2008 after first visiting Costa Rica 20 years ago on a family vacation. “After falling in love with Costa Rica and the people, I knew that large families would really enjoy their time here,” said William Bell, owner of Villa de la Luna. “I wanted to find a piece of property with a spectacular view and this land was the total package,” continues Bell.

Costa Rica, which translates to “The Rich Coast”, provides much of the world’s bananas, coffee, and pineapples, while offering the best adventure excursions right in the back yard of the villa. Guest of Villa de la Luna can enjoy zip lining through the Costa Rican Rainforest, hot springs at the bottom of the Arenal Volcano, hike the Palo Verde National Park, and numerous water sports.

“I built the villa so that families would have a place to create memories with one another. My main goal was to let guests stay worry free while feeling like they were in the comfort of their own home,” adds Bell.

Villa de la Luna is available for rental year-round and can be reserved by going on their website, www.costaricanbeachvilla.com or call: 850-830-4830
